

Week of 5/4/20 Lesson Plans

Monday:

Math: Work on assignments received, as well as watch videos on Google Classroom, which correspond to the work assigned to the student.

Reading: Work on assignments received as well a watch videos on Google Classroom, which correspond to work assigned to the student

Social Studies: Work on assignments assigned to Google Classroom, if there is limited technology, write about each of the following community helpers, doctors, nurse, and dentist. This should include what they do, and why they are important, as well as a picture drawn by the student.

Science: Work on assignments assigned to Google Classroom, if there is limited technology, put discuss each season, and what type of clothing would be appropriate for each season.

Tuesday: We will have a Google Meets instructional session from 12-1. This lesson will be on adding and subtracting.

Math: Work on assignments received, as well as watch videos on Google Classroom, which correspond to the work assigned to the student.

Reading: Work on assignments received as well a watch videos on Google Classroom, which correspond to work assigned to the student

Social Studies: Work on assignments assigned to Google Classroom, if there is limited technology, write about each of the following community helpers, doctors, nurse, and dentist. This should include what they do, and why they are important, as well as a picture drawn by the student.

Science: Work on assignments assigned to Google Classroom, if there is limited technology, put discuss each season, and what type of clothing would be appropriate for each season.

Wednesday: Google Meets one on one meetings available from 9-1

Math: Work on assignments received, as well as watch videos on Google Classroom, which correspond to the work assigned to the student.

Reading: Work on assignments received as well a watch videos on Google Classroom, which correspond to work assigned to the student

Social Studies: Work on assignments assigned to Google Classroom, if there is limited technology, write about each of the following community helpers, doctors, nurse, and dentist.

This should include what they do, and why they are important, as well as a picture drawn by the student.

Science: Work on assignments assigned to Google Classroom, if there is limited technology, put discuss each season, and what type of clothing would be appropriate for each season.

Thursday: We will have Google Meets instructional time on reading comprehension from 12-1.

Math: Work on assignments received, as well as watch videos on Google Classroom, which correspond to the work assigned to the student.

Reading: Work on assignments received as well a watch videos on Google Classroom, which correspond to work assigned to the student

Social Studies: Work on assignments assigned to Google Classroom, if there is limited technology, write about each of the following community helpers, doctors, nurse, and dentist. This should include what they do, and why they are important, as well as a picture drawn by the student.

Science: Work on assignments assigned to Google Classroom, if there is limited technology, put discuss each season, and what type of clothing would be appropriate for each season.

Friday: Attend Specials

Math: Work on assignments received, as well as watch videos on Google Classroom, which correspond to the work assigned to the student.

Reading: Work on assignments received as well a watch videos on Google Classroom, which correspond to work assigned to the student

Social Studies: Work on assignments assigned to Google Classroom, if there is limited technology, write about each of the following community helpers, doctors, nurse, and dentist. This should include what they do, and why they are important, as well as a picture drawn by the student.

Science: Work on assignments assigned to Google Classroom, if there is limited technology, put discuss each season, and what type of clothing would be appropriate for each season.